The intent of this certificate is to enhance and supplement the student's program of study by providing an interdisciplinary perspective on women, gender, and sexuality studies.

Eligible students:

- Graduate program enrollment
 - currently enrolled in a graduate program at Southern Illinois University Carbondale, or
 - Have a bachelor's degree and admitted as an Unclassified Graduate Student
- Must complete the required worksheet and confer with the WGSS Coordinator to register for the Certificate Program.

18 semester hours of credit required

- 12 credit hours must be at the 500 level
- WGSS 596*
- WGSS 597*
- 6 credit hours outside of graduate area of study; while it is appropriate for students to take WGSS courses offered within their graduate programs (and these courses may count toward that graduate degree as well as the WGSS graduate certificate), at least 6 hours must be taken outside of the student's area of graduate study.

How to complete this form:

- Fill out all of the contact information and list your graduate program.
- Insert the credit hours and the semester/year the class was taken (e.g., 3/SP year).
- Make sure to list the classes for your current or upcoming semester.
- After completing the form, save it to your computer and email to wgss-coordinator@siu.edu.
- Update this form every semester and resubmit via email.
- Contact the WGSS Coordinator when you have completed your coursework so they can notify the graduate school and file a certificate completion form.
- Please keep a copy of all correspondence for your records.
